F D Maurice, British Theologian 1805-72. John Frederick Denison Maurice, often known as F. D. Maurice , was a major theologian of the Church of England. As a professor at King's College and at Cambridge, Maurice attracted "a band of earnest students" to whom he gave two things. He taught them from the knowledge he had gained by his comprehensive reading. More importantly, Maurice instilled in students "the habit of inquiry and research" and a "desire for knowledge and the process of independent thought".

Diocese of Missouri - (V, The Episcopal Church) The Rt Revd Wayne Smith; Diocese of West Missouri - (VII, The Episcopal Church) The Rt Revd Martin Field, clergy and people.

Anglicanism was brought to the New World by explorers and colonists with the first celebration of the Holy Eucharist in Jamestown, Virginia, in 1607. There was no resident Bishop for nearly two hundred years, causing problems when many of the clergy sided with the Crown during the American Revolution. In 1784, the Scottish Episcopal Church consecrated the first American Bishop. The Church has 9 Provinces, 98 Dioceses, plus 20 overseas jurisdictions. Out of a population of 284 million, only 2 million are Episcopalians, in 7,095 parishes, with 15,310 clergy.

EASTER 2 (St George)

George, martyr, patron of England, d.303

Probably martyred at Lydda (now Lod) in Israel, during the persecutions of Diocletian. A renewed devotion to St George can be attributed to the Crusaders. He became the patron of soldiers, Richard I placed his army under St George's special protection. Whether Henry V cried "God for England, Harry and St George!" as in Shakespeare's play is not certain but it is a fact that after Agincourt, the commemoration was raised to the status of a major feast. Edward III made George patron of the Order of the Garter and St George's Chapel, Windsor, is dedicated in his name. Though he probably did not slay a dragon or rescue a maiden (as in many legends) he is also a patron of Russia, Venice, Genoa, Portugal, Aragon and Lithuania and is even mentioned in Islamic tradition.

St Catherine of Siena, teacher of the faith, 1347-1380

The twenty third child of a dyer. One of twins, though her twin died. She was much attracted to the Dominicans and tried to emulate them in asceticism. She may have been anorexic. After a "Spiritual Espousal" on Shrove Tuesday 1367 she turned her energies outwards, serving the poor, visiting prisoners and nursing lepers and plague victims. Taught herself to read and became a wise woman to whom many turned for counsel. She also wrote many letters to people in authority including Pope Gregory XI, telling him that he should return to Rome from exile in Avignon. After a long illness she died aged 33. Her "Dialogue" is a spiritual classic.
