Encountering God in Windermere

With the United Reformed Church Retreats Group.

Pay What You Can.

Where do you encounter God? It might be in the reading of scripture or as you walk in the open air. It might be as you are being creative – weaving, painting, making music – or in the silence of a quiet room. Have you ever been on a retreat? Spending time intentionally seeking company with God can refresh our faith journey and give us spiritual energy for the next stage. The URC Retreat Group offers an opportunity to help with the answers to both questions. During this event, the group will be offering a patchwork of retreat experiences, where you will be guided in a range of ways to encounter God: for example, lectio divina, creative arts, labyrinth walking, journalling, walking with God, silence. Some may be familiar, but God might be waiting to meet you in other ways. If you have not been on a retreat before, this will offer a gentle taster experience to help you choose the kind of retreat that will restore you in future. If you are a regular retreatant, you will have the chance to try something you've always wondered about.
